SIGNIFICANT RISKS OF BOS ACCOUNTS

All of BOS's Deposit, Savings and Investment accounts are relatively low risk accounts but please be aware that all investments involve a certain amount of risk.

Changes in Interest Rates

- You may not be able to take advantage of interest rate increases should interest rates rise during your chosen investment term.

Cheque Facility

- If you do not keep your cheque books and cheques in a safe place there is the risk of unauthorised transactions occurring from your account.
- Funds from cheques deposited to your account take approximately 3 working days to clear. You should not rely upon these funds until they have actually cleared.

Unauthorised Transactions Through Internet Banking

- A possible risk is that unauthorised transactions may be enacted on your account through internet banking. You may be liable, in some circumstances, for these. Please refer to the Terms and Conditions for Internet Banking PDS, the Terms & Conditions for VISA Debit Cards PDS and the Terms and Conditions for Credit Cards for further information regarding circumstances in which you will be liable.

Disruptions Due to Electronic Equipment Failure

- From time to time it is a possible risk that you may not be able to make transactions or account enquiries if any electronic equipment is malfunctioning or unavailable.

Currency Risk for Accounts in Foreign Currency

- Is the risk that due to adverse exchange rate movements, the value in Australian Dollars (AUD) of your Foreign Currency account may fall.

HOW TO OPEN A BOS ACCOUNT

If you currently bank with another Australian financial institution and you are seeking to switch your personal transaction accounts to Bank of Sydney, we can assist in that switching process.

Identification

You must supply the information, documents and any authorisations BOS requires (including but not limited to the Account Application forms) for the purposes of opening and maintaining the account/s. We will require details such as:

- Your name (including any other name you may be known by);
- Your current residential address;
- Your date of birth;
- Your current occupation;
- The name you wish the account to be in; and
- Whether the account is to be held in trust. (If this applies, further details will be required).

For identification purposes we are obliged by law to verify the true identity of each account holder and signatory to an account and to sight proof of their identity documents. We will ask you to supply various items or documents as evidence of your identity. In most cases this will include a primary photo identification document where we would require the photo to match your current likeness. Our staff will advise you what items of identification are acceptable. All documents need to be current unless our staff advises otherwise.

We will then need to carry out verification checks. In circumstances where we need to verify a primary photo identification document against your facial likeness, you must remove all face coverings. We will do our best to work with you while meeting our legal requirements. If you do not, we may be unable to provide you with the service.

If all the signatories to an account are not identified and verified to our requirements, the account may not be opened. If the account is already open, the account will be restricted and withdrawals and any type of account maintenance will not be allowed until all of the signatories have been fully identified and verified to meet our requirements.

We may conduct searches of public registers to obtain or verify information. A fee may be charged for this service, please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

When you open an account in a Business Name

If you are a business customer, apart from the identification requirements for each signatory, BOS will require you to supply other verifications and documents in relation to the business identity. Our staff will advise you what items of identification are acceptable.

You must also provide us with any other document we request in order to identify you. A Business Search Fee may also apply. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

Providing Us With Your Tax File Number (TFN)

Accounts earning interest are subject to A New Tax System (Pay As You Go) Act 1999. The interest earned on your account must be included in your assessable income.

When you open an account with us, you have the option of supplying us with your TFN or relevant exemption you are claiming. Providing your TFN is NOT compulsory, but is advisable. If you don't provide your TFN (or relevant exemption) we are required by law to deduct withholding tax at the highest marginal tax rate plus Medicare levy from your interest and forward it to the Australian Taxation Office when you earn interest income of $120 or more a year.

If you fall into one of the following categories you can claim an exemption from quoting your TFN, and withholding tax will not be deducted:

- Most pensioners
- Children under 16 where interest income is less than $420 p.a. (If interest earned on any child's account is in excess of $35 per month for any month, a TFN for the child needs to be lodged otherwise maximum withholding tax will be deducted. Where applicable, the accountholder may then seek refunds through the ATO).

For joint accounts all account holders need to quote their TFN. For accounts held in trust for someone else (such as your child or children) you should quote your own TFN. If a formal trust has been established, you also need to quote the Trust's TFN.

Investments held by non-residents are subject to special PAYG withholding rules. We are required by law to deduct non-resident withholding tax from any interest payment. The current rate is 10%.

Bank of Sydney is required to report details of interest/dividend income earned, withholding tax deducted and Tax File Numbers quoted on an account, to the Australian Taxation Office.

Any interest you earn on credit balances in your BOS accounts has tax implications that may affect you. The personal circumstances of each customer are different and we encourage you to seek independent taxation advice.

The collection of Tax File Numbers and their use and disclosure are strictly regulated by the Privacy Act (1988).

Statements

You can obtain up-to-date information on your accounts. Accessing this information can either be free or incur a fee, depending on the type of service you choose and the frequency of your request (Please refer to Fees & Charges PDS). BOS will issue statements for your account (except Term Deposits). Statements for all other accounts are issued at least once every six months. You may request for statements to be sent to you more often. Other optional available statement cycles are:

- once every month; or
- once every three months.

A fee may be charged if you require more frequent statements which differ from the standard product cycle or multiple statements or transaction listings. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

Remember, statements are an important part of your banking and finances in general. Please be advised that:

- all entries on statements should be checked carefully and any apparent or possible unauthorised transaction promptly reported to the Bank. You must contact your branch as soon as possible or call us on 1300 888 700;
- you should retain transaction records or transaction record numbers to confirm against items appearing on the statement of your account. It will assist any claim you may need to make regarding any lack of authority.

Note: A statement will not be provided where we are unable to locate you after taking reasonable steps to contact and locate you.

We may also not provide you with a statement for a statement period if your account has a zero balance and there were no transactions during that period.

Opening Joint Accounts

This section applies if an account is in two or more names jointly.

Receiving notices from the bank for Joint Accounts

Where your account is held jointly with one or more persons, the following shall apply:

- BOS can send you notices, statements or other documents including changes to this PDS by mailing them to any one of the account holders at their address shown in BOS's records;
- if BOS does this, you will be deemed to have received the notice, statement or other document the day after it is sent;
- if BOS gives this PDS to any one of the joint account holders, they will be considered to have been received by all account holders.

Understanding your obligations

You may choose to operate accounts jointly with other persons or entities.

If you do, your liability under these terms and conditions is both joint and several. This means that each of you is liable both on your own and together for the whole of the debit balance on the account. You should carefully consider any arrangement that involves you becoming a joint account holder.

This also means that each of you separately and all of you together have the right to all the available funds in the account.

It is up to you and the other joint account holder(s) to specify how many of you must sign in order to operate a joint account. Account operating instructions are part of your contract with us and may only be altered by written notification to us, signed by all the parties to the joint account.

Despite any instructions you may give us to the contrary, we may insist that the joint account only be operated on the signatures of all joint account holders if:

- a) one of the joint account holders requests us in writing to do so; or
- b) we are notified in writing of any dispute between the joint account holders; or
- c) we are notified of the death or bankruptcy of any of the joint account holders.

You agree that each of you acts as an agent for the other and that we can send a copy of a notice or statement to all or any one of you.

You agree that each account holder may have access to information about the account without the consent of the other joint account holders.

If any of you die, the account will be treated as the account of the surviving account holders only.

Opening an account held in trust

We can open trust accounts on request for a variety of situations that include:

- where one or more persons open an account in which they are named as trustee for another person(s), e.g. Trustee accounts by parents or guardians for children;
- for Trustees under a will;
- for Trustees under a deed

Opening an account for a minor

We can open an account for a minor, who is a person under the age of 18. Accounts for minors are opened in the minor's name. Refer to specific account terms and conditions for types of accounts that can be opened in a minor's name. An adult must sign the account opening form.

Debit Visa Card access, Credit Card access and cheque access is not permitted for persons under the age of 18.

Providing BOS with any Instructions

Any instructions given to BOS must be written in the English language.

OPERATING A BOS ACCOUNT

Authority for account operation and Authorised Signatories

At the time of opening your BOS account, you must nominate the person(s) authorised to operate the account.

Authorised signatories

You may give a person who is at least 18 years old the authority to operate your account on your behalf. All authorised signatories must be identified. We are obliged by law to verify the true identity of each signatory to an account and to sight proof of their identity documents. We will ask any authorised signatory to supply various items or documents as evidence of their identity. You should ensure that any authorised signatory has read and understood the terms and conditions.

Except where expressly provided, BOS can act at all times on the basis that the person(s) authorised to operate the account can act fully and effectively in all dealings, matters and transactions in respect of the account. You are responsible to BOS for all liability that is incurred as a result of any withdrawals or maintenance on the account. An authorised signatory will not be able to:

- Alter the account holders details on the account;
- Add or delete any other third party on the account to which they have access;
- Transfer the account(s) between branches;
- Open new accounts (with the exception of rolling over the same funds in Term Deposits where it is technically necessary to close and re-open a new account).

Note: Please also refer to separate conditions (in a later section of this PDS) regarding the closure of the account.

We may suspend the operation of an account at any time if we are aware of a dispute or discrepancy regarding your authorised signatory.

If you wish to cancel the authority of an authorised signatory on any account you must tell us in writing. You remain responsible and liable for all transactions made by the authorised signatory until the time you have cancelled the authority in writing, regardless of when the transactions are debited to the account.

Different Ways of making Deposits

For all accounts other than Term Deposits, unless otherwise noted in their individual sections, you may make deposits to your account in the following ways:

- Direct Credit By arranging an automatic deposit of your salary or other income (such as family allowance, pensions) to be paid directly into your account;
- In person at any BOS branch or agency;
- In person at any Australia Post outlet offering Bank@Post facilities.
(Please note:
 - a daily cash deposit limit of $3,000 applies per account.
 - a daily cheque limit of 5 cheque items up to a combined total of $999,999 applies
 - you will need to present your BOS VISA Debit Card).
- By arranging an electronic credit from your other BOS accounts or from your accounts at another bank;
- Deposits may be made in cash or by cheque at branches of the Commonwealth Bank, as BOS has a special arrangement with them. (This facility is available on request to approved applicants).

BOS Term Deposits have specific terms and conditions for withdrawing or transferring money. Please refer to Term Deposit Section for details.

Cheques

Cheques offer convenience when making or receiving payments and are safer to carry than large amounts of cash.

The bank may at any time withdraw your cheque facility in the event of any improper conduct of the account. E.g. continue to issue cheques where there are insufficient funds to honour the cheques or issuing incorrectly completed cheques.

Cheques deposited to your account. How long does it take to clear a cheque?

Once a cheque has been deposited into your account, you will generally be able to draw on the funds after three working days, however some cheques e.g. a cheque in a foreign currency, usually take five to seven working days before you can access the funds and a cheque deposited through an agency such as Australia Post usually takes 7 business days.

The funds will only be available once your cheque has cleared, that is, once it has been confirmed with the other Bank that sufficient funds are held in the account of the person who gave you the cheque to cover the amount specified on the face of the cheque.

When you pay a cheque into a BOS account, BOS may allow you to draw on the cheque before it has cleared but you will be liable for the amount of the cheque if it is subsequently dishonoured. If you wish to make such an arrangement, you will have to obtain authority from BOS at the time that the cheque is deposited into your account.

Special clearance of funds from cheques

You can arrange for a cheque to be cleared in less than the usual time by requesting a 'special clearance'. Fees apply to this service. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

What if the cheque is returned to us uncleared or dishonoured after you have accessed the funds?

BOS will debit your account by the amount of the cheque and may also charge you a fee. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

What if a cheque is lost after you have deposited it to your BOS account but before the cheque has cleared?

BOS will debit your account by the amount of the cheque and will contact you in writing advising you of the situation. It is your ultimate responsibility to obtain a replacement cheque from the drawer. BOS does not accept any liabilities for cheques, which have been lost in the cheque clearing process, as we are not to credit your account until the cheque is actually cleared.

What is a 'Crossed' cheque?

It is a cheque with two parallel lines across it. When you cross a cheque, you are telling the bank that the cheque must be paid into an account with a financial institution and not cashed. An 'uncrossed' or 'open' cheque without two parallel lines across it may be cashed.

What is a 'Not Negotiable' cheque?

Cheques are 'negotiable instruments'. They can be passed from one person to another. Two parallel lines across the cheque (with or without the words 'Not Negotiable' written between them) protects the true owner of a lost or stolen cheque. They ensure that the recipient of a cheque obtains no better rights to the cheque than the person who passed the cheque. For example, if your cheque has been stolen and passed by the thief to a person who has no knowledge that the cheque is stolen (an innocent person), you will be able to recover the amount paid on your cheque from the innocent person (or the thief if they are found).

What does 'Account payee only' mean?

If you write these words on a cheque, you are directing the bank collecting the cheque (that is, the bank where the cheque is ultimately deposited) to only pay the cheque into the account of the person named on the cheque. E.g. if a cheque made out to Sam Simmons has the words 'Account Payee Only', this cheque should only be deposited to Sam Simmons' account.

What do the words 'or bearer' and 'or order' mean?

The words 'or bearer' mean that the bank may pay the cheque to whoever is possession of the cheque, not only the person named on the cheque. If you delete these words, the cheque becomes an 'or order' cheque. The cheque may already have the words 'or order' appearing on it. A cheque payable 'to order' means that the cheque proceeds may only be paid to the person whose name is on the cheque, or as they direct.

Third Party Cheques

When depositing a cheque into your account, or if you present a cheque that is payable to someone else, or it appears to belong to someone else (a third party cheque), BOS may, in its discretion, refuse to accept that cheque for deposit or may require you to comply with some conditions before it will accept that cheque for deposit.

Note: Third party cheque deposits cannot be made when the deposit is made through Bank@Post. If the deposit is made through Bank@Post, the cheque must be made out to 'cash' or the payee on the cheque must be the same as the Name on the card.

How to Stop a cheque

You may stop a cheque that you have given to someone else by notifying BOS (before the cheque has been presented) and telling BOS all the details including the following:

- account number;
- amount of the cheque;
- number and date of cheque; and
- name of payee.

It is important you notify the bank immediately with clear written and signed instructions. A stop payment fee may apply. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS. If you have lost a cheque you received from someone else, notify that person so they may stop the cheque.

Note: A stop payment instruction does not automatically discharge your liability to the payee of the cheque.

Significant risks associated with cheques

There is the risk that unauthorised transactions will occur on your account.

Tips for cheque security, which will help reduce the risks

- when writing out cheques, don't leave gaps between words and fill up any empty spaces with a horizontal line
- where you are required to write the amount in words, begin the amount in words as close as possible to the left hand side and add the word 'only' to the end of the amount
- 'cross' the cheque if it is not intended to be exchanged for cash
- where you are required to write the amount in figures, begin the amount in figures as close as possible to the dollar sign
- always write the correct date on a cheque. You must not 'postdate' a cheque (i.e. do not write a date in the future)
- never write on a cheque with pencil or erasable ink
- only sign a cheque when it is completely filled out (NEVER SIGN A BLANK CHEQUE)
- always write the amount in words as well as figures

- if you make any alterations, you must sign your name next to the alteration
- check your bank statements regularly to reconcile cheques drawn on your account (completing the cheque book butts will assist you in this process)
- keep your cheque book in a safe place where it cannot be found or accessed by any unauthorised users
- if you lose your cheque or cheque book or it has been stolen notify the bank immediately

When may a cheque be dishonoured?

At the bank's discretion but generally where:

- there are insufficient funds in the account of the drawer;
- the cheque is unsigned or signed incorrectly;
- the cheque is more than 15 months old;
- the cheque is future dated;
- the cheque has been materially altered and
- the alteration has not been signed;
- there is a legal impediment to payment;
- the cheque has been stopped; or
- the paying bank has been notified of the mental incapacity, bankruptcy or death of the drawer.

If a cheque is returned as unpaid we will reverse the entry in your account i.e. deduct the amount of the cheque that was originally credited. A cheque that you issue that is dishonoured is known as an 'outward dishonour'. A cheque that you deposit to your account (e.g. cheque received from someone else) that is dishonoured is known as an 'inward dishonour'. We will notify you as soon as possible. We may also return the cheque to you, however it is not guaranteed that the other bank will forward the cheque to BOS to enable us to return it to you. It is your responsibility to pursue payment from the person who gave you the cheque.

BOS may charge a dishonour fee when a cheque has been dishonoured. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

What if I lose my cheque/s or my chequebook or if they are stolen?

You should keep your cheques safe at all times. If they are lost or stolen, you must take the following action:

- for a cheque written by you – immediately submit a request for BOS to stop the cheque and inform the person to whom the cheque is payable;
- for a cheque payable to you – immediately tell the person who wrote the cheque;
- for an BOS cheque book – tell BOS to put a stop payment on the serial numbers. If you subsequently find the cheques, BOS will require written authorisation from you before the cheques can be paid.

Warning:

If you don't inform BOS that your chequebook or any cheque/s have been lost or stolen as soon as possible, you may be liable for transactions incurred by you before you notify BOS, even if they are made without your authority.

Bank cheques

Bank cheques are cheques instructing payment from Bank of Sydney itself rather than from a customer's account. They are designed to provide an alternative to carrying large amounts of cash when a personal cheque is not acceptable. Bank cheques are usually requested because of the higher likelihood that they will be paid. However bank cheques should not be regarded as equivalent to cash. Both BOS and non- BOS customers can purchase bank cheques. A fee is charged. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

The bank may dishonour a bank cheque if:

- the bank cheque is forged or counterfeit;
- the bank cheque has been fraudulently and materially altered;
- a fraud or other crime has been committed;
- the bank is told the bank cheque has been lost, stolen or destroyed;
- there is a court order restraining the bank from paying a bank cheque;
- the bank has not received payment or value for the issue of the bank cheque; or
- if a bank cheque is presented by a person who is not entitled to the cheque proceeds.

If a bank cheque is lost or stolen, BOS will, in certain conditions, provide a replacement cheque for a fee. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

Withdrawals

Withdrawals of the available credit balance, or money up to any approved overdraft or credit limit, can be made, from your accounts by you or any authorised signatory or by any person who holds an authorisation from you. E.g. having your signature verified to branch records and/or being identified using acceptable identification documents.

VISA Debit Card You can make withdrawals up to your combined daily withdrawal limit via your VISA Debit Card.

Internet banking – transfer of funds can also be made over the internet between one of your own accounts within BOS to another account within BOS or to another account with another bank.

Over the counter withdrawals - can be made at any BOS branch or agency such as Australia Post outlets offering Bank@Post facilities. If you wish to make a withdrawal at an BOS branch where the account is not held, BOS may require you to provide satisfactory identification and may impose a daily limit on the amount that you withdraw. Daily limits may be imposed when any electronic equipment is not working at the time. If you require a large amount of cash (over AUD$10,000) you will need to provide the branch with at least 24 hours notice of your requirements.

(Please note that for Bank@Post facilities a daily cash withdrawal limit applies per transaction- please refer to VISA Debit Cards Terms and Conditions. You will need to present your BOS VISA Debit Card and validate the transaction with your card PIN number).

Cheque withdrawals - if your account has a cheque facility, you can make a withdrawal by using a cheque.

Transfer of funds - can also be made between one of your own accounts within BOS to another account within BOS or to another account with another bank.

Periodical payments - allow the account holder or authorised user to authorise the bank to make automatic payments, for a fixed amount at regular intervals, on behalf of the account holder. This authority is given by signing a 'Periodical Payment Authority'.

They can be used for making regular deposits or regular loan payments to an account with BOS or at another bank, subject to there being sufficient cleared funds in your account on the day before the payment is due to be made. (Further details contained in section below).

Direct Debits - are another form of withdrawals. They are used when you want a third party to automatically debit your account to pay for the services or goods they are providing you. (e.g. utilities, insurances)

Note: We may set restrictions on the amount that can be withdrawn from an account at any one time.

Periodical Payments

Changes to Periodical Payments

You may change your Periodical Payment at any time, except on the day before the payment is due and on the due date, by signing a new 'Periodical Payment Authority'.

Periodical Payments can be terminated when:

- The authority expires or is cancelled; or
- If the remitting or payee account is closed; or
- If the payee account is transferred to another financial institution; or
- When a loan (on which repayments are being made by periodical payment) is repaid; or
- If the payee account holder dies.

Costs

Your account is debited for the amount of the payment, together with any fee applicable. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

Significant Risks

- There is a risk that the payee's financial institution may refuse to accept payments;
- There is a risk that transactions may not be processed on time, on some occasions, due to disruptions to operational processes reliant on computer and/or telecommunication systems;

- BOS is not responsible for any delays in processing, under the control of the payee or their financial institution;
- There is the risk that amounts will continue to be debited from your account under a periodical payment even after an instruction has been made to cancel the periodical payment.

(Further information on Periodical Payments, including specific terms and conditions, may be located on the 'Periodical Payment Authority' which may be obtained by contacting any branch of BOS).

Stopping payments for Direct Debits

If you want to stop a direct debit arrangement, we will take and promptly process your instructions to cancel a Direct Debit Request relevant to a Banking Service we provide to you. In addition, you may request the authorised party to cease the direct debiting of your account.

You can also arrange for a direct debit to be stopped/ cancelled if you inform us that the direct debit was unauthorised or otherwise irregular. You need to notify BOS in writing at least 3 banking business days before the payment is made. A Stop Payment fee may be charged for this service, please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

A Dishonour Fee or Rejection Fee is also charged:

- if you authorise a third party to direct debit your account and payment is not made because there are insufficient cleared funds in your account to meet the payment. Please refer to Fees and Charges PDS.

Warning:

If you have quoted your VISA Debit Card number or Credit Card number for Direct Debits, BOS is unable to cancel these debits on your behalf. You must notify the merchant if you want to cancel your authority for them to debit your account. Until you do so, the merchant is entitled to request BOS to debit the account and BOS is obliged to process their request.

Note: If the merchant continues to debit your account, after you have requested them to cancel your authority, BOS is able to dispute the relevant transaction/s on your behalf, as long as you provide BOS a copy of all your correspondence with the merchant.

Significant risks

- There is the risk that amounts may continue to be debited from your account by the direct debtor even after an instruction has been made to cancel the direct debit.

Note: If you stop/cancel a direct debit, this may put you in breach of your contract with the other party. BOS will not be responsible for any such breach or any losses resulting thereof.

Processing of withdrawals and deposits

Generally, any transaction made on your BOS account will be processed to your account on the same day provided it is made in a branch before 5.00pm (EST) Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays).

If a transaction is made at another bank, there may be a delay of several days before your account is credited with your deposit.

internet banking transactions will generally be processed to the recipients account by the next business day, provided they are made before 4.30 pm (EST) Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays). Transactions made after this time will generally be processed by the second business day.

BPAY (same day) transactions will generally be processed to the recipients account by the next business day provided they are made before 4.30pm (EST) Monday to Friday (excluding national and public holidays). Transactions made after this time will generally be processed by the second business day.

Note: This disclaimer of liability does not restrict any other provisions contained in any other part of the PDS, which limit the banks liability. We may vary cut-off times at any time. Temporary changes may be done without notice. Permanent changes will be advised to you.

Processing of Debits and Credits

A Debit or credit to an account is taken to be made on the date assigned to it (effective date), which may be different to the date we processed it. Any debit from, or credit to, an account will be made by us in accordance with our usual practice and in the case of credits, made in anticipation of the receipt of funds, subject to receipt of such available funds. In the event that such funds are not received or any payment is reversed, we may debit the account with an amount representing funds that are not actually received for value at the anticipated time or the reversed payment.

We may adjust debits and credits to the account and the account balance. We may also make consequential changes, including to interest amounts.

Subject to any relevant legislation, we may:

- Block your account (which will prevent you from operating your account); and/or
- Refuse to process a transaction or entry.

If we exercise such a right and you suffer loss or damage and/or there is a breach of your contract with a third party, we will not be liable.

Providing Credit on Business or Personal transaction accounts

BOS does not agree to provide any credit in respect of your account without prior written agreement and this is dependent on the type of account you have. Credit by agreement may be available through a Home Equity Maximiser Facility, a Business Overdraft Facility or a BOS Maximiser facility. It is a condition of all BOS accounts that you must not overdraw your account (that is bring your account into a debit balance) without prior arrangements being made and agreed with BOS. If you request a withdrawal or payment from your account which would overdraw your account or exceed its agreed credit limit, BOS may, in its discretion, allow the withdrawal or payment to be made on the following terms:

- interest (at the unarranged overdrawing rate) will be charged on the overdrawn amount at the highest rates charged by BOS in respect of similar over drawings at the time. Please refer to the Interest Rate PDS. This is only charged if you overdraw your account or exceed the agreed credit limit;
- a Referral Fee/Excess Fee may be charged for BOS agreeing to honour the transaction which resulted in the overdrawn amount (refer to Fees and Charges PDS);
- interest on debit balances is calculated on the daily balance and charged monthly in arrears;
- the overdrawn amount, any interest on that amount and the Referral Fee will be debited to your account;

- you must immediately repay the overdrawn amount and pay any accrued interest on that amount and the Referral Fee upon the amount being debited to your account; and
- If we do allow the account to become overdrawn or to exceed any overdraft limit, any resulting debit balance does not constitute the offering of, or increase to, an overdraft facility for that amount.
- The Bank may lodge a default file report with a credit reporting agency when your accounts are overdrawn and become overdue for more than 60 days from the date your notice expires. If we report your default to a credit reporting agency your credit rating may be affected and you may have difficulty obtaining finance in the future.

The Privacy Act (1988) allows us to give to a credit reporting agency personal information about you including:

- that credit has been applied for and the amount (you acknowledge that you will be treated as having applied for credit if you make a transaction which overdraws your account);
- permitted information about you which will allow you to be identified;
- if the account is overdrawn, that we are a current credit provider to you;
- details of payments that become overdue for more than 60 days and for which collection action has commenced;
- details of cheques, over $100, drawn by you which have been dishonoured more than once;
- if you have committed a serious credit infringement;
- payments are no longer overdue;
- that the credit provided to you by us has been paid or discharged.

If you are having financial difficulties

There may be times when repaying your debts becomes difficult. For example, if you overdraw your account and are unable to pay the money back on time or are unable to make your loan repayment when it falls due. Should this happen, BOS may be able to help in cases of financial hardship. You should inform BOS as soon as possible on 1300 888 700 to discuss various options that may be available to you.

INTEREST CALCULATIONS

Interest will only accrue while the account is in credit, and will be charged when the account is in debit. The rates of interest are determined based on prevailing market rates, adjusted by margins to incorporate the Bank's fixed and variable business costs and any associated risks. The rates of interest offered may vary from time to time (and subsequently the margins) due to changed market conditions.

- The current interest rate that applies can be found by referring to the Interest Rate PDS. Changes may be made to the interest rates and types of interest paid and are at the discretion of BOS. Please refer to the Interest Rate PDS.

Interest will be calculated on the daily closing balance of your account. The daily interest rate is the annual rate divided by the number of calendar days in a year.

Foreign Currency

For USD and EUR Foreign Currency Transaction Accounts, interest is calculated daily on the credit balance on a 360 day basis and credited to the account monthly.

For GBP (and existing NZD) Foreign Currency Transaction Accounts, interest is calculated daily on the credit balance on a 365 day basis and credited to the account monthly.

Cut-Off Times relating to deposits into Foreign Currency accounts

When foreign currency accounts are opened or deposits are made, daily cut-off times apply to locking in exchange rates for each particular currency. If the account is opened or a deposit is made after the cut-off time, your exchange will be effected on the following business banking day.

For Accounts in EUR, USD, GBP (and existing CHF) cut-off time is 3.00pm (EST).

For existing Accounts in JPY and NZD, the cut-off time is 11.30am (EST).

Example.

- If you open a EUR Foreign Currency term deposit account after 3.00pm (EST), your funds will not commence earning interest until the following business banking day and you will be issued with a term deposit certificate at this time.

- If you make a deposit to your NZD Foreign Currency transaction account, after 11.30am (EST) your funds will not commence earning interest until the following business banking day.

At maturity payment of interest, for all types of term deposits

At the time you make your Term Deposit, you can arrange for your interest to be:

- capitalised at maturity i.e. it can be reinvested together with the original Term Deposit; or
- credited to a BOS transaction account in the same currency.

Note: You must hold a BOS transaction account in the same currency in order to select this option.

Monthly payment of interest for 12 month term deposits

(only available in AUD); or

Quarterly payment of interest for 2 or 3 year term deposits

(only available in AUD)

Note: For these type of term deposits you must arrange for your interest to be credited to a BOS AUD transaction account that you hold.*

Interest Types

'Split' tier balance method

Means that different rates of interest apply to different parts of your account balance. For example, the interest paid on that part of your balance between $50,000 and $99,999 may be different from the interest paid on the first $49,999.

'Whole' tier balance method

Means that a single rate of interest will apply to the entire balance of your account. Different rates are offered in tiers depending on the balance of your account.

Non-interest bearing

Means that your account will not earn any interest at all.

Deposit interest is calculated and credited as follows:

- For accounts paying interest Monthly, interest is calculated daily on the credit balance and credited to the account monthly.

$$\text{e.g. Daily Interest} = \frac{\text{Daily closing balance}}{365} \times \frac{\text{Interest rate}}{100}$$

- For accounts paying interest quarterly, interest is calculated daily on the credit balance and credited to the account quarterly on the last business day of March, June, September and December.

$$\text{e.g. Daily Interest} = \frac{\text{Daily closing balance}}{365} \times \frac{\text{Interest rate}}{100}$$

- For USD, EUR Foreign Currency Transaction Accounts, interest is calculated daily on the credit balance on a 360 day basis and credited to the account monthly.

$$\text{e.g. Daily Interest} = \frac{\text{Daily closing balance}}{360} \times \frac{\text{Interest rate}}{100}$$

- For and GBP Foreign Currency Transaction Accounts, interest is calculated daily on the credit balance on a 365 day basis and is credited to the account monthly.

$$\text{e.g. Daily Interest} = \frac{\text{Daily closing balance}}{365} \times \frac{\text{Interest rate}}{100}$$

For AUD, GBP and NZD Term deposits, interest is calculated daily on the opening balance of your account and accrues daily at the fixed interest rate for the term of your deposit divided by 365. Interest is normally paid at maturity. (Note: For AUD term deposits only, you may select monthly payments for a 12 month term deposit or quarterly payments for AUD 2 or AUD 3 year term deposits).

$$\text{Interest} = \frac{\text{amount Invested} \times \text{rate \% per annum} \times \text{number of days}}{365}$$

- For USD and EUR Term Deposits, interest is calculated on the opening balance of your account and accrues daily at the fixed interest rate for the term of your deposit divided by 360 and paid at maturity.

$$\text{Interest} = \frac{\text{amount Invested} \times \text{rate \% per annum} \times \text{number of days}}{360}$$

- For Solicitor and Real Estate Agent Trust Accounts, interest is calculated daily on the credit balance and paid monthly on a 365 day basis. Any interest paid on the account will be paid to the appropriate State governing body at the rate agreed or required by the relevant government authority in accordance with the relevant legislation. (Different rates of interest are payable depending upon whether you are a Solicitor or a Real Estate Agent). Current rates may be obtained by ringing 1300 888 700.

$$\text{e.g. Daily Interest} = \frac{\text{Daily closing balance}}{365} \times \frac{\text{Interest rate}}{100}$$

- Deposit interest is not paid on the Everyday Main Account (or Home Loan Offset Basic Account).

Where the offset feature has been activated, the whole balance of the account will be used to offset the home loan's outstanding balance for interest calculation purposes. This reduces the interest you pay, so you can pay off your loan sooner.

e.g. For each day when there is a credit balance in your account with an active offset facility, your interest charge for this day on your linked loan will be reduced by an 'offset amount'. The 'offset amount' for that day is calculated as follows:

1. Take the balance of the offset account

2. Take the interest rate currently applicable to your loan and multiply it by the offset percentage of your offset account, which is 100% i.e. the whole balance of your account.
3. Multiply 1. and 2. and divide the result by 365 (being the number of days in the year)
4. Equals the offset amount for that day.

Worked Dollar example:

Step 1: $50,000.00

Step 2: 6.50% x 100%

Step 3: $\frac{$50,000.00 \times 6.50\%}{365}$

Step 4: = $8.90

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING TERM DEPOSITS

YOU WILL NOT BE ISSUED WITH A STATEMENT OF THE ACCOUNT.

Notice of Maturity- Renewal Notice

- We will contact you in writing before the term of your deposit ends (matures) so that you may advise us in writing of your instructions.

On the maturity date you can:

- make a full withdrawal
- reinvest the funds for the same term or a different term
- change the amount that you wish to reinvest by making a partial withdrawal or by adding funds (provided you maintain the minimum balance requirement of $1000) without incurring a 'reduction amount'.

If for any reason BOS does not have any instructions from you as to what should happen to your funds at maturity, BOS will reinvest them in the same type of Term Deposit, at the rate of the interest we are prepared to pay for similar deposits as at the maturity date of your original deposit (in this paragraph "original" deposit means the deposit which is to be reinvested). The interest rate upon renewal may differ considerably from the interest rate, which previously applied. You may contact us to obtain the applicable interest rate on the date of maturity.

Note: Term Deposits maturing on a weekend or public holiday will now be maturing on the next business day.

Re-investment

We will issue you a Certificate of Re-investment letter, should your funds be re-invested. This will confirm your Term Deposit details.

Early Repayments

Normally you are unable to withdraw the term deposit at any time prior to when the term has ended, unless we agree. Any request for withdrawals must be made in writing.

If the bank agrees to repay all or part of your deposit prior to the end of the term, then the whole balance must be withdrawn, unless we agree otherwise. (If it is a partial withdrawal the remaining funds may be invested in a new Term Deposit for an agreed term at a rate applicable at the time).

For AUD Term Deposits -

Early repayments attract an administration fee and a reduction in the return generated for the depositor. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS for information on how the reduction amount is calculated.

Note:

The following transactions are permitted within 5 business days following the maturity date without incurring an administration fee or an early reduction in interest amount. Changes will take effect as at the date of the transaction:

- a) Withdrawals of the interest amount that was paid at maturity date plus 10% of the principal; and
- b) Deposits up to 10% of the principal.

For Foreign Currency Term Deposits -

At the time of the request, BOS will determine the interest rate we are willing to pay on the total amount of the Foreign Currency term deposit. A reduction in interest or principal will also be incurred and will depend on the following:

- The Foreign Currency held;
- The amount of the Term Deposit;
- Prevailing foreign currency interest rates in the market;
- The percentage of the original term elapsed;
- Costs incurred by us as a consequence of terminating the Foreign Currency Term Deposit early or making a partial withdrawal.

If it is within 7 days (5 business days) after the maturity date (where the term is up to 12 months) the early repayment fee will be the interest accrued since maturity.

NOTE: Early withdrawals can result in Nil payments of interest or even reductions in your principal due to termination costs.

Upon Maturity or Early withdrawal you may request disbursement of funds via various methods including:

- Cash;
Note: A cash handling fee may be payable, please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

- Transfer to another BOS account;
- Transfer to another bank account;
Note: A fee for the transfer is payable, please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.
- BOS Bank Cheque;
Note: A fee for the issuing of a Bank Cheque is payable, please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The bank will debit your account from time to time with any applicable Government charges or duties, which are levied for account activity. They will be shown on your account statement. These charges may vary according to State or Territory. Please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

Dormant Accounts

BOS has in place additional internal system controls, which restrict transactions on accounts as follows:

- Business Cheque Accounts - after 90 days of inactivity
- All other Transaction Accounts - after 220 days of inactivity

This is to protect your inactive accounts and may prevent you from using certain methods of accessing your money, such as using your BOS VISA Debit Card. You will need to contact the bank to re-activate your account in order to allow transactions to be processed properly.

Unclaimed monies accounts

If you do not operate your account for 7 years (prior to 30/12/2012) or for 3 years (after 01/01/2013) and there is $500 or more in your account, BOS is required by law to send your money to the Government as unclaimed money if we have been unable to contact you and obtain your instructions.

Note: If you hold an account in foreign currency, the foreign currency will be converted into AUD at the prevailing rate BOS has applicable before the funds are forwarded to the Government.

While you can reclaim any money that has been sent to 'unclaimed monies' at any time by lodging a claim at your branch, BOS suggests you operate your account regularly to avoid any inconvenience. If you intend lodging a claim, we will need to verify your identity as well as provide us with your account documents. Processing your claim may take three months.

Disruption to service

When planning transactions, please allow sufficient time for processing. You should bear in mind that occasionally a banking service may be disrupted. A 'disruption' is where a service is temporarily unavailable or where a system or equipment fails to function in a normal or satisfactory manner. BOS will correct any incorrect entry that is made in your account as a result of a disruption and will adjust any fees or charges that have been applied as a result of that incorrect entry. To the maximum extent permitted by law, BOS will not be liable for any loss or damage, including consequential loss or damage, suffered because of a disruption. This disclaimer of liability does not apply to internet banking transactions (Refer to Terms and Conditions for Internet Banking PDS).

*This is an addition to, and does not restrict, any other provisions contained in this Product Disclosure Statement, which limits BOS's liability.

Combating money laundering, counter-terrorism financing, tax evasion and other criminal activity

BOS must meet its regulatory and compliance obligations relating to anti-money laundering and counter financing of terrorism. To do this we will be increasing the levels of control and monitoring. BOS may, from time to time, require additional information from you in order to comply with anti-money laundering and counter terrorism financing laws and regulations. If this information is not supplied to BOS, we reserve the right to block/cancel/modify any accounts you may hold with BOS or to refuse to provide you with any banking service.

You declare and undertake to BOS that the payment of Monies, in accordance with your instructions, will not breach any laws in Australia or any other country. You have a duty of care and agree to not do anything, which may facilitate any fraud, forgery or other illegal act.

You agree to provide BOS with any additional information that BOS reasonably requires to comply with any laws in Australia or any other country.

You agree BOS, where legally obliged to do so, may disclose the information gathered to regulatory and/or law enforcement agencies, other banks, service providers or to other third parties.

You agree BOS may delay, block or refuse to make a payment if BOS believes on reasonable grounds that making a payment may breach any law or sanctions in Australia or any other country and BOS will not incur any liability to you if it does so. You must not initiate or conduct a transaction that may be in breach of Australian law or a law in any other country.

Change of Personal Details

You must notify BOS promptly of any changes to your personal details. BOS will not be responsible for any errors or losses associated with account changes where BOS has not received prior notice, as we rely on accurate information from you.

Our right to combine accounts

BOS can combine the balances of two or more of your accounts, even if the accounts are at different branches or in joint names. This may happen when one of your accounts is overdrawn or is in debit and another is in credit. This means that the credit balance in one account can be used to repay to BOS the debit balance in another account. BOS will promptly inform you if it has combined any of your accounts. We need not notify you in advance. You should not treat your accounts as combined unless BOS has agreed to such an arrangement.

Closing your BOS account

You or any other authorised person can close your account at any time upon request at any BOS branch.

Termination Value when your account balance is in credit

The credit balance of your account plus deposit interest, if any, less any accrued account fees and Government charges applicable to the closing date, will be paid to you. Monthly fees will apply even though the account has been open for only part of a calendar month.

Termination value when your account contains uncleared funds

If the account is holding unclear funds at the time of your request to close the account, these will not be released until the funds are cleared. We reserve the right not to close any account if there are any liabilities (actual or contingent) owing to us.

An account with cheque access may only be closed once all outstanding cheques have been presented. BOS reserves the right to return any cheques presented for payment after the account has been closed.

Any unused cheque book, passbook or electronic card, which operates the account, must be returned to BOS before closure of the account.

Termination value when your account is in debit

If your account is in debit, the balance plus any accrued debit interest, fees and Government charges applicable to the closing date will be payable by you to BOS.

If your account has either a nil or debit balance, and there have been no transactions (except for Government charges and fees) on the account for more than three months, then BOS may close your account without notice.

BOS may close an account due to unsatisfactory conduct.

BOS may also exercise its discretion to close an account at any other time. In these events, BOS will notify you in writing at the address shown on its records and will forward a bank cheque for the net credit balance of the account.

If your account is closed for any reason at any time, you agree to notify all payees with whom you have authorised Direct Debits on that closed account.

If, upon closure there are any liabilities owing to us in relation to the account, these shall become immediately due and payable. The terms and conditions shall continue in full force and effect until all those liabilities have been fully discharged.

Staff benefits on deposit and transactions products

BOS staff are eligible for monthly reward bonuses for exceeding specific product sales targets for BOS products. The amount of this monthly bonus will depend on volume sold.

Bank fees and charges

All BOS accounts are subject to specific account related fees and charges. Other general fees and charges may also apply to your account for other services or account activity.

The bank will debit your account from time to time with any relevant fees and charges. BOS may waive fees under certain approved conditions.

If BOS fails to collect a fee to which it is entitled, BOS has not waived its right to collect the fees previously due or its right to collect fees for future transactions of the same nature.

Account fees (excluding some ATM fees) are debited to your account on the first business day of each calendar month or upon account closure. The fees relate to account activity for the previous month. Some fees for ATM use are debited to your account on the day (or the next business day) that the transaction took place.

For information about specific account fees and charges (including the types of transactions you can make, monthly withdrawal quotas and specific fee amounts) please refer to the Fees and Charges PDS.

BANK OF SYDNEY LTD PRIVACY POLICY

Who are we?

'We ', 'us' and 'our' refer to Bank of Sydney Ltd, ACN 093 488 629, AFSL and Australian Credit Licence 243 444 and our related businesses (BOS).

Our commitment to protect your privacy

We are committed to protecting the privacy and security of the personal information that you entrust to us. Maintaining your trust and confidence is of the utmost importance in our banking relationship. This policy applies both to current clients of BOS and to applicants for any service, irrespective of whether their application may be accepted or rejected.

This policy sets out our privacy policy commitment in respect of the personal information we hold about you and what we do with that information.

Our commitment in respect of the personal information is to abide by the Australian Privacy Principles for the protection of personal information, as set out in the Privacy Act and any other relevant law.

The purpose of this Privacy Policy is to inform you as to:

- The personal information that is collected from you.
- The purpose for which the personal information is held.
- Whether the personal information may be shared or used by others in the course of our banking operations.
- The manner by which you can inform us of your complaint should you feel there has been a breach of the privacy and security of any of personal information that you have given us.

We refer to "personal information" within the text of our policy to mean information or an opinion about an identifiable individual, or an individual that is reasonably identifiable:

- whether the information is true or not; and/or
- whether the information is recorded in a material form or not.

When we refer to 'credit information' we mean information which is used to assess your eligibility to be provided with finance and may include any finance that you have outstanding, your repayment history and any defaults. Usually, credit information is exchanged between credit and finance providers and credit reporting bodies.

Credit information

We may collect the following kinds of credit information and exchange this information with credit reporting bodies and other entities:

- credit liability information being information about your existing finance which includes the name of the credit provider, whether the credit provider holds an Australian Credit Licence, the type of finance, the day the finance is entered into, the terms and conditions of the finance, the maximum amount of finance available, and the day on which the finance was terminated;
- repayment history information which is information about whether you meet your repayments on time;
- information about the type of finance that you are applying for;
- default and payment information; and
- court proceedings information.

We exchange this credit information for the purposes of assessing your application for finance and managing that finance.

This credit information may be held by us in electronic form on our secure servers and may also be held in paper form. We may use cloud storage to store the credit information we hold about you.

How your personal information (or data) is collected by BOS

We collect your personal information from you in a number of ways which include:

- when you complete an application for a banking product, service or credit facility;
- when you participate in a BOS competition or promotion;
- during business and social functions where contact details are exchanged; or
- through your use of electronic devices when visiting our website or BOS social media sites.

We may also collect your personal information from credit reporting bodies and from brokers and other people such as Accountants and Lawyers.

The types of personal information that we may collect from you

Personal information collected includes name, gender, address, date of birth, phone and fax numbers, employment details, TFN's, email, citizenship and residency details, marital status, means of personal identification (i.e. passport, driver's license numbers) the purpose of any credit product that you may apply for, number and ages of dependents, cohabitants, length of time at current address, assets, liabilities, income and other financial commitments, the fact you have applied for banking products and services including credit and the amount of credit.

Once you have opened an account with us, to effectively administer your account and better serve you, we also collect, maintain and monitor details of your transactions and balances of your accounts.

Sensitive information

We will only collect sensitive information about you with your consent. Sensitive information is personal information that includes information relating to your racial or ethnic origin, political persuasion, memberships in trade or professional associations or trade unions, sexual preferences, criminal record, or health.

What is the purpose of collection?

BOS collects your information for the following purposes:

- arranging, assessing, providing, managing and administering your banking relationships and credit facilities;
- to comply with any law in force from time to time;
- to meet local and international reporting protocols (directly or indirectly);and
- for direct marketing of BOS products and services or products and services of any organisation affiliated or represented.

Note: You have the right to request not to receive direct marketing material.

Opting out of receiving direct marketing material and product promotions

You can contact BOS and opt at any time not to receive any marketing from us about new products, services or promotions. If you do decide to opt out, we will continue to provide information in relation to your specific existing accounts only, including new features or products related to these specific accounts.

What happens if you do not provide your information?

The information collected by BOS is required to comply with legislative and regulatory requirements and is necessary to undertake our business as a Bank. If you do not provide any of the information requested of you then BOS will not be in a position to assist you with our banking services and may not be able to consider or approve any application. BOS also reserves the right to refuse to provide you with banking services if you have not provided the required information.

How BOS uses your personal information:

BOS uses the personal information collected about you for a variety of purposes related to the financial products, credit products, or services we provide you.

BOS uses your information to:

- to conduct the bank's regular and necessary business functions such as internal audit, performance reporting, research, product development and planning.
- to support, promote and process our transaction relations (through this we may offer you other products and services that will enhance our relationship with you).
- assess an application for a banking product or service including an application for consumer or commercial credit;
- to comply with legislative and regulatory requirements including the Privacy Act 1988 and the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-terrorism Financing Act 2006;
- to verify your information;
- conduct risk assessment and management involving securitisation, credit scoring, portfolio analysis, reporting, fraud prevention and to collect overdue payments from you;
- administer any facility held;
- to provide to authorised third parties where applicable (such as insurers);
- and for any purpose authorised by law;
- assess the risk of:
 - you defaulting on your obligations to BOS;
 - you being unable to meet a liability that might arise under a guarantee, in respect of mortgage finance given (or to be given) by BOS to another person.

Cookies

When you visit our website (and BOS social media sites) we may use cookies and similar technologies, including mobile device identifiers, to help us recognise you, improve your BOS banking experience, increase security, measure use of our services and to deliver related advertising and promotions.

By visiting the BOS website (and BOS social media sites), you consent to the collection of your personal information via cookies in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

You can control cookies through your browser settings and other tools; however some cookies are necessary in order for the website to work as intended.

Who BOS discloses your personal information to:

BOS may engage outside individuals or organisations to provide support services for the Bank. In the course of providing the support service they may have access to your personal information. That access is strictly limited to the performance of the support service that we have requested or contracted to be provided. They are not allowed to use your personal information for their own personal or business related purposes.

To enable us to maintain a successful business relationship we may disclose personal information as permitted by law, which may include the following entities:

- BOS service providers (including marketing companies, data consultants and IT contractors, stationary printing houses and mail houses);
- people considering acquiring or taking an interest in BOS business or assets;
- to parties for the purposes of fraud prevention;
- their agents, contractors, and external advisers;
- identity verification services;
- your referees, including your employer;
- your legal and financial advisers;
- government and other regulatory bodies (e.g. APRA, ASIC, AUSTRAC, ATO);
- mercantile agents if you default on your obligations to BOS;
- payment system operators;
- other financial institutions and credit providers;
- related companies, whether in Australia or overseas and specifically countries such as Lebanon to the parent company;
- mortgage insurers and reinsurers;
- parties for the purpose of securitisation arrangements (e.g. purchasing, funding, managing and processing credit and/or insurance);
- a guarantor or potential guarantor;

- credit ratings agencies; and
- credit reporting bodies (see 'Notifiable matters' below).

Notifiable matters

The law requires us to advise you of 'notifiable matters' in relation to how we may use your credit information. You may request to have these notifiable matters (and this privacy policy) provided to you in an alternative form.

We exchange your credit information with credit reporting bodies. The credit reporting body may then include your information in reports that the credit reporting body gives other organisations (such as other lenders and insurance companies) to help them assess your credit worthiness.

We use the credit information that we exchange with the credit reporting body to assess your application for finance and managing your finance.

If you fail to meet your payment obligations in relation to any finance that we have provided or arranged or you have committed a serious credit infringement then we may disclose this information to a credit reporting body and accordingly this may affect your ability to obtain credit from other lenders.

You have the right to request access to the credit information that we hold about you and make a request for us to correct that credit information if needed. Please see the heading: 'Access and correction to your personal information (including credit information)' below.

Sometimes your credit information will be used by credit reporting bodies for the purposes of 'pre-screening' credit offers on the request of other credit providers. You can contact the credit reporting body at any time to request that your credit information is not used in this way.

You may contact the credit reporting body to advise them that you believe that you may have been a victim of fraud. For a period of 21 days after the credit reporting body receives your notification the credit reporting body must not use or disclose that credit information. You can contact the following credit reporting body for more information:

- www.veda.com.au

You can also contact the credit reporting body to limit the use of your personal information for their marketing purposes.

Prior to disclosing any of your personal information

Prior to disclosing any of your personal information to another person or organisation, we will take all reasonable steps to satisfy ourselves that:

- a) the person or organisation has a commitment to protecting your personal information at least equal to our commitment; or
- b) you have consented to us making the disclosure.

Note: BOS may release your personal information where there is a duty to do so by law, without obtaining your prior consent to disclose that information. We will not sell or disclose your information to any individual or organisation for unrelated marketing purposes.

When BOS may exchange your information

BOS may also need to exchange information between credit providers (e.g. originators, mortgage broker, mortgage originator, mortgage manager) and advisors (e.g. accountant, lawyer, financial consultant) named in this application and others named in any credit report during the course of providing the credit facility, mortgage or insurance policy to you or proposed to be provided to you.

Information exchanged may include any information about you including information about your credit standing, credit history or credit capacity that credit providers or insurers are allowed to exchange under the Privacy Act 1988.

In addition and where permitted by the Privacy Act 1988, BOS may share your information with a credit reporting body or other parties for the purposes of fraud prevention.

Security and Storage of your Personal Information

We will take reasonable steps to protect your personal information by storing it in a secure environment. We may store your personal information in paper and electronic form.

We may use cloud storage to store the personal information we hold about you. The cloud storage and the IT servers may be located in or outside Australia.

We will also take reasonable steps to protect any personal information from misuse, loss and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

We make every effort to maintain administrative, electronic, physical, and procedural safeguards to store and protect the confidentiality of your personal information and to ensure it is accurate, current and confidential.

Our employees are trained and both our employees and agents are required to safeguard your personal information and can only access your personal information for purposes related to your business with the Bank.

Access and correction to your personal information (including credit information)

You may access and (where required) correct your personal information held by BOS

Subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act, you may access your personal information, including the credit-related information we hold about you, at any time, or if you identify any inaccuracy or need to update details of your personal information, you may ask to do so at any BOS branch. BOS may charge you a reasonable fee for access.

You may have access to the extent that the bank is required or is authorised. BOS may refuse access to a record under the applicable provisions of any law of the Commonwealth.

Depending on the type of request that you make we may respond to your request immediately, otherwise we usually respond to you within a reasonable time of receiving your request. We may need to contact other entities to properly investigate your request and/or to retrieve information from other locations.

There may be situations where we are not required to provide you with access to your personal or credit information, for example, if the information relates to existing or anticipated legal proceedings, or if your request is vexatious.

An explanation will be provided to you, if we deny you access to the personal or credit information we hold about you.

If we refuse to correct personal or credit information we will provide you with our reasons for not correcting the information.

You may also ask for a copy of your credit file from the credit reporting body BOS uses:

Veda – www.Veda.com.au

Note: Each credit reporting body has a policy about how it deals with your information and you can ask for a copy by contacting them directly using the contact details provided above.

Business without identifying you

In most circumstances it will be necessary for us to identify you in order to successfully do business with you, however, where it is lawful and practicable to do so, we will offer you the opportunity of doing business with us without providing us with personal information, for example, if you make general inquiries about interest rates or current promotional offers.

Making a Complaint regarding your Privacy

If at any time you believe we have acted in a way that is inconsistent with this policy in the manner by which we dealt with your personal information or you have a complaint about our adherence with the Privacy Act, please visit your nearest branch to discuss the matter. You may also contact the BOS Compliance - Privacy Officer by telephone or even address your privacy complaint in writing.

Our contact details are listed below:
